

Message from Torae:

So after much consideration on the release schedule for Tunnel to Akutou I decided...to not have one. A monthly release is too long and a weekly is impossible for me right now. I would love to do a bi-weekly release but I can't promise that consistency. But to mention not every chapter's amount of pages are inconsistent... Instead, I'll keep a gauge on my progress page on my tumblr so you know if I'm far or nearing release. This is only for Tunnel to Akutou because release schedules are already set for AKB49 Higurashi. And finally, here is a new chapter of Tunnel!
